

Poem (about Turkey)

I like Turkey very much.

Its beauty gives a special touch,

a big and lovely country too,

with seas of sparkling shining blue.

The Bosphorus is a wonderful sight.

With boats that sail from day to night.

People drink tea and laugh all day,

while watching life just passes away.

There are mountains, forests green,

and beaches with a lovely scene

so many places to explore,

Each one beautiful and more.

The food is tasty, fresh and sweet.

With baklava that's hard to beat.

Families and Friends stay near.

sharing love and joy all year.

By Zeynep Okullu